

IT Graduates (Unix and Linux)

- Excellent Opportunity to work with Leading Edge and Innovative Solutions
- Career Development with ongoing Training and Certification
- Work with large Government Agencies and Blue Chip Corporate Customers

Due to expansion, we are looking for highly motivated graduates to fulfil roles within our High Performance Computing Group. The ideal candidates will have the following skills and attributes:

- Recently qualified in IS, IT, Computer Science, Engineering or related field.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Ability to work within a team structure.
- Genuine desire to work with innovative solutions and achieve industry recognised certification.

The ideal candidates will also have a genuine interest in the following:

- UNIX and Linux Operating Systems such as Red Hat, Suse and AIX.

ISA Technologies has provided an array of successful Information Technology products and services across many industries in Australia and Asia for 20 years, primarily for large enterprise based organisations and Government. ISA's most valuable asset is its highly trained, credentialed and experienced IT professionals. These are permanent staff positions. ISA Technologies' policy is to recruit talented people who aspire to be leaders in their field and want to work with the best. Excellent career opportunities and salary packages are waiting for those that are prepared to prove they are the best in what they do.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.
www.isatechnologies.com

jobs@isatechnologies.com
(08) 9470 4411